

Just Arrived from the North Country Our New Patrick Coats Beautiful and Fleecy

For real outdoor folks, both young people and grown-ups, these patricks mean winter comfort and fun.

We have a large new assortment of these famous Bigger-Than-Weather garments — all of the real Patrick North Country Cloth.

You'll enjoy snuggling into one of these fleecy North wool coats when days are chill and winter winds blow. You'll like the freedom it gives you for arms and legs.

It's all because they're made of the long, fleecy wool.

You'll be comfortable without bundling and winterproof in the rawest kind of weather.

And We Have Beautiful New Colorings, Too

Rich, woodland shades, soft greys, dull greens and browns, and subdued shadow plaids.

All our patricks have the big shawl collars which turn up to cover the ears, generous side pockets and smart belts.

Prices of patricks for grown-ups—$10.

Prices for small boys and girls—$6.

Prices for larger boys and girls, twelve to eighteen years—$8.

E. E. PERRY & COMPANY

Always Reliable

TOWNSHEND.

Two Injured in Willard's Mill.

Two accidents have happened in C. H. Willard's mill this week. On Tuesday, William Flannigan, who was running a buzz planer, in some way cut off the ends of two fingers. He had been working only a short time at the mill. On Wednesday Mrs. Fred Lawrence, who counts brush handles at the mill, received a painful cut near the temple when a chip flew from a shaper, hitting a board in front of her and bounding back. The cut was not serious, but was painful and bled profusely.

Hugh Adams has bought a new Ford automobile. Alfred Darling of Brattleboro was in town this week repairing telephone lines.

Herbert Stone of Athol came Monday night to visit at the home of his father, A. F. Stone.

Walter Morse has returned from Bristol, Conn., where he has worked for the past month, as he could find no suitable tenement for his family.

The Dorcas guild held a meeting Wednesday at the Congregational vestry and served a dinner at the noon hour instead of a 5 o'clock tea as usual. Those serving the dinner were Mrs. Fred Osgood, Mrs. Mattie Turner and Mrs. I. S. Sayre.

The women of the church will serve an old-fashioned boiled dinner in the Congregational vestry at noon Tuesday, Nov. 7. They also will serve a supper about 6 o'clock in the vestry as many will be here for the election. A reasonable price will be charged.

WARDSBORO CENTER.

Mrs. Ellis Wilder is at work for Mrs. Pincus.

Joseph Lamarche and family visited at Bert Bacon's Sunday.

Mrs. Fletcher visited her daughter, Mrs. Belle Pincus, Tuesday.

The three Pincus children have been very ill, but are gaining slowly.

A number from here attended the dance at Max Wolf's on South hill Oct. 27.

Mrs. Leon Bills is at home from the Brattleboro hospital and is gaining slowly.

Mrs. Lucie White of West Wardsboro came to Dorset Wakefield's Tuesday to keep house for him.

School has been closed for two weeks as the teacher, Mrs. Pincus, had to be at home to care for her children.

Mrs. Mabel Bacon and son, Dellivan, Mrs. Page and daughter, Eva, all of East hill, visited relatives and friends here recently.

George Edwards was hurt seriously Tuesday in the woods at Pikes Falls, where he was at work. A log rolled over him. Jack Allen, his brother-in-law, brought him home.

WILLIAMSVILLE.

The annual sale of the Ladies' Aid association of the Methodist church will be held Nov. 10 in the vestry. The sale will open at 3 p. m.; supper served from 5.30 to 7.30 p. m.

HINSDALE, N. H.

L. J. Walker is clerking in G. S. Howe's store.

John M. Lamb has been in Nashua a part of the week.

Miss Mildred Clarke spent Sunday at her home in Alstead.

Miss Dorothy Gray was at home from Brattleboro a few days last week.

Miss Dorothy Gray was at home from Brattleboro a few days last week.

Mrs. L. H. Davenport recently visited Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Taylor in Keene.

James G. Snow has taken a position in the office of the Ashuelot Paper company.

Miss Eva Whitcomb of Swansey was a guest at F. W. Colton's several days last week.

Miss Opal Hudson of Brattleboro spent a few days recently with Mrs. Charles W. Safford.

E. C. Robertson and O. C. Robertson have been in Albany, N. Y., on a business trip.

Mrs. R. M. Langworthy is entertaining her uncle, O. F. Tewksbury of Morris, Minn.

Elwood Weed is wiring the Nelson Blount and George Oaks houses for electric lights.

John Sawyer has gone to West Newbury, Vt., and Woodsville to spend a week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell of Farley, Mass., visited briefly with Hinsdale friends Saturday.

Several interested in football are planning to attend the Dartmouth-Syracuse game in Springfield Saturday.

Mrs. Stephen B. Moore and Miss Ellen Moore of Becket, Mass., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Tilden.

Joseph Boucher left this week for Albion, R. I., where he has employment with a construction company.

The greatest interest locally in next Tuesday's voting seems to be over the question of license or no-license.

Harry Hutchinson of Montpelier, Vt., spent Friday and Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Langworthy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Royce were called to Marlow Wednesday by the death of Mrs. Royce's father, Milan Knight.

Dr. Salmons delivered very interesting lectures in the high school and grammar school Wednesday on the care of the teeth.

There will be a balopian lecture in the Congregational church next Sunday evening. The subject will be Beginnings of Home Missions.

A very pretty Halloween party was given to a gathering of little folks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Robertson Tuesday afternoon. The guests were Master Edwin and Irene Robertson, Elizabeth Stearns and Rose, Helen and Eleanor Jerfords. The dining room presented a very novel appearance with the table tastefully arranged with everything in keeping with Halloween.

The Woman's club met Tuesday at the pleasant home of Mrs. W. N. Pike and enjoyed a delightful afternoon. The subject for consideration was the Indians, and the roll call brought out many interesting incidents of Indian life. A very complete and exceedingly interesting paper on Pocahontas was given by Mrs. E. J. Richards, who was followed by Miss Barrows with selections from Hiawatha. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Pike's daughters served seasonable refreshments. The young women were dressed in Halloween regalia in honor of the occasion. The club will meet with Mrs. Fiddle Nov. 14, when the topic will be The Immigrant Among Us.

George P. Miller went to Windham Tuesday as auctioneer for W. A. Adams at that place. He was accompanied by Mrs. Miller, Edward Houghton and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coombs, all going by automobile.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church will give a Halloween social Friday evening of this week at George P. Miller's. Each of the ladies is requested to bring refreshments enough in a box for two persons. Sandwiches will be furnished by Mrs. Miller and others. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

"The paths of glory lead but to the grave" especially when the glory sought is that of having broken the previous speed record.

The menace lies not in battle casualties, but in empty cradles.—Sir George Beatson.

GUILFORD.

Rev. S. H. Barnum of Jericho (Vt.) was a guest of Rev. C. B. Atwood last week Wednesday.

Mrs. A. J. Bolden is ill at her home and is being cared for by Mrs. Blaisdell of this town.

Mrs. Annie Jacobs Wardner came Saturday to her father's home from Burlington for a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Amidon were guests over Sunday of their brother, George Amidon, in Chesterfield, N. H.

Mrs. Lucius Putnam went Friday to Meriden, N. H., to visit his cousin, Miss Lottie Torrey, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodburn Franklin were guests over Sunday of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Putnam, in Bernardston, Mass.

E. Bristol, who has been on Dr. Hamilton's farm, has moved to Brattleboro and Mr. Wade of Putney has arrived to carry on the farming for the coming year.

George P. Miller went to Windham Tuesday as auctioneer for W. A. Adams at that place. He was accompanied by Mrs. Miller, Edward Houghton and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coombs, all going by automobile.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church will give a Halloween social Friday evening of this week at George P. Miller's. Each of the ladies is requested to bring refreshments enough in a box for two persons. Sandwiches will be furnished by Mrs. Miller and others. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

"The paths of glory lead but to the grave" especially when the glory sought is that of having broken the previous speed record.

The menace lies not in battle casualties, but in empty cradles.—Sir George Beatson.

OVERCOATS

Gather Backs, Balmarons, Chesterfields and many other classy models, in all the new materials and colorings as well as the staple black and Oxfords.

Save From $5 to $10

on every Overcoat you purchase here. Prices—

$10, $15, $18, $20, $25 and up

Clever Suits for Smart Dressers at

$10, $15, $18, $20, $25 and up

New Neckwear, Underwear, Hats, Shirts and Sweaters at reasonable prices.

(STREET FLOOR)

Michelman System

Men's and Women's Clever Outfitters

Park Building, Opposite New Depot. "Where Style and Economy Meet"

EAST DUMMERSTON.

Miss Dean, nurse, came Wednesday to care for Mrs. Harry H. Miller.

Mrs. Don Butterfield of Wilmington is a guest of her sister, Mrs. L. C. Halladay.

Mrs. H. C. Hazleton underwent an operation in the Memorial hospital Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Robbins of Buffalo, N. Y., called on friends in town Wednesday.

STRATTON.

Dr. Pierce, Albert Smith, Walter Ward and Leon Wylie of Manchester are camping in the Hawks camp.

Elbridge Wheeler of Bridgeport, Conn., and his brother of Wilmington, who have been spending several days at their camp on the Jones farm, are intending to go back to Wilmington Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Damsour of Wilmington have been with them part of the time.

MARRIAGES.

In Brattleboro, Oct. 31, by Carl S. Hopkins, Esq., Peter Job and Anna Diadasz, both of Holyoke, Mass.

In Brattleboro, Nov. 1, by Carl S. Hopkins, Esq., Charles Lester Mathewson of Coventry, R. I., and Maud Estelle (Sweet) Hopkins of Fiskeville, R. I.

DEATHS.

In Dummerston, Nov. 1, Mrs. H. H. Miller, 80.

Women's Fashionable New Dresses of Individual Styles

Whether it be a copy of a charming imported model or a tailored dress of simple lines—there's an unmistakable air of style about them all.

Charmeuse and Satin Dresses in wonderful, smart styles. All exclusive models, at $19.50 and $25.00

Taffeta, Satin and Crepe de Chine Dresses with box pleated skirts and Georgette collars, at $14.98 and $17.50

Satin and Taffeta Dresses in chic new high waist models; full skirts with patch pockets. Special at $1.25

French Poplin and Serge Dresses in an assortment of plain and plaited models, at $12.50 to $17.50

Special in Serge Dresses made in all shades and sizes, distinct new high waist models, at $8.75 and $9.87

Silk Poplin Dresses in many styles and all colors, at $6.98 to $8.75

Sailor Suits in navy blue only; two qualities, at $4.98 and $7.50

J. E. MANN

GRAND OPENING

F.W. Woolworth & Co.

5 & 10c Store

Friday, Nov. 3

2 to 5; 7 to 9 p. m.

For Inspection On'y. No Goods Sold

OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Saturday, November 4, at 8.30

NOTHING OVER 10 CENTS

SPECIAL NOTICE

We have our Nickel Plating Plant now in operation, and are prepared to handle any and all kinds of Plating, Polishing, Brush Brass and Oxidized work.

Mr. Lane, who has charge of this department, is an experienced man and capable of handling any kind of work, large or small.

We solicit your patronage.

National Automatic Machine Company

Elm St. Brattleboro, Vt.

The United States department of agriculture has a large force which devoted its entire time to developing new by-products and methods of saving material now used.